The

Shadow

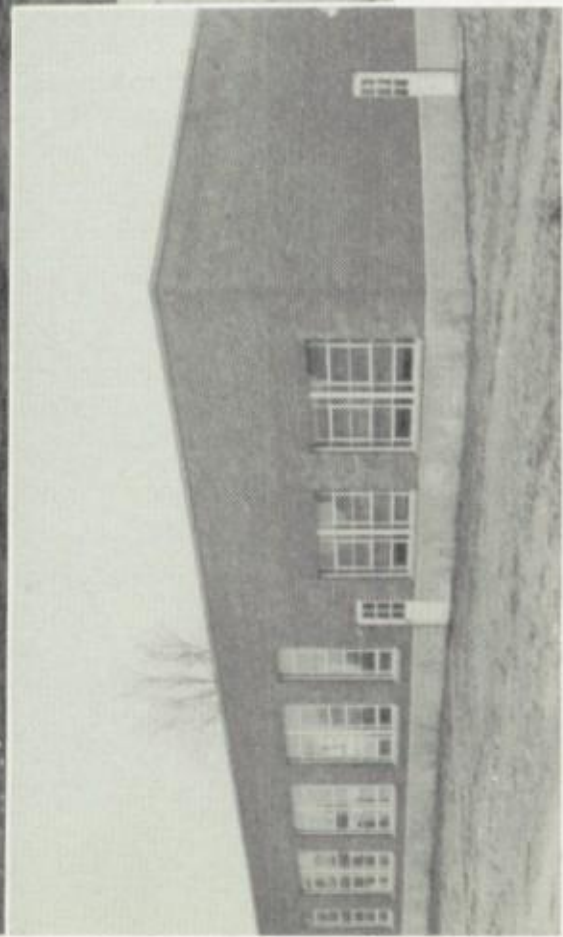

Ridgeville Local School

Agriculture Building

We, the Senior Class of 1954, respectfully dedicate our yearbook to Miss Ruth Max, a teacher at Ridgeville High School for thirteen years. She was very influential with the students and much respected for her knowledge of subject matter and understanding of human nature. Her students at R. H. S. will long remember her endeavors in their behalf.

ADMINISTRATION

COUNTY SUPT.

M. E. BRANDON

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Standing: Otto Dehnbostel, Fred Buchop Seated: Raymond Behrman, Henry Eggers, Eldor Helmke, Frank Knape.

These men through their immeasurable efforts provide for the many needs of our school and help make Ridgeville High School the superior school that it is.

SUPERINTENDENT

F. F. HESTERMAN

At the head of our school, as Superintendent is Mr. Hesterman, a very capable leader and a friend to all of his students. Few realize the tasks and duties which are his to perform daily.

As advisor of our Senior Class he gives us helpful advice and guidance which are welcome by all of us.

PRINCIPAL

Our Principal, Mr. Clark, faithfully performs the duties of a principal besides the many other tasks that are placed upon him.

He good-naturedly fulfills his position as a teacher and also as a class advisor.

He is everybodys' friend and his presence is enjoyed by all.

TULLY WAGGONER
B.A. Wittenberg College; English.

Welcome To The New Teacher

Beginning the second semester, Mr. Tully Waggoner, former Assistant Manager of a Woolworth store in New York City, came to our school to fill the vacancy in the English Department.

Mr. Waggoner was born in Ashland, Ohio, where he attended high school and Ashland College. He received his AB degree from Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio.

Before receiving his college education, however, Mr. Waggoner served with the Army in the Pacific for three years.

Mr. Waggoner stated that collecting records, writing short stories, and swimming are his favorite hobbies. He also said that he likes our school and pupils very much.
